Central Texas Receives $153 Million For Regional Transportation Projects

Last week the Texas Transportation Commission approved two grants totaling more than $153 million to jump start a number of critical transportation projects in Central Texas. TxDOT and the Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority will use the money to complete the $500 million Manor Expressway (US 290 East) project and to accelerate work on four other major projects including the MoPac Improvement Project (Loop 1), Oak Hill Expressway (US 290 West), Manchaca Expressway (45SW) and Bergstrom Expressway (US 183 South).
