

AUSTIN, EL PASO CRE MARKETS ON UPSWING

NEW YORK (Real Estate Forum) – American Law Media’s Real Estate Forum magazine published its list of ten “up and coming” commercial real estate markets, and Austin and El Paso were among them.

The magazine said "thousands of young professionals are flocking to Austin for new jobs and a popular music and arts scene." Meanwhile, El Paso is "rising from the ashes and prospering thanks to new public policy and tax incentives."

No other Texas cities made the list.
