

RECON

Real Estate Center Online News
July 2, 2010

Real Estate Center at Texas A&M University

ACC'S SHOPPING SPREE CONTINUES

AUSTIN (Austin Business Journal) – In addition to purchases in Bastrop, Elgin and Leander, Austin Community College (ACC) has agreed to purchase 96 acres in Kyle near the intersection of Kohlers Crossing and Kyle Pkwy. for $9.8 million.

“Acquiring this land now is a good investment,” said Stephen B. Kinslow, ACC president and CEO. “We are and will continue to be the fastest growing institution of higher education in Central Texas. ACC must proactively plan for the future in order to continue meeting the fast and growing educational needs of the region we serve.”

To see more information about ACC’s recent land acquisitions, check out an exclusive interview with ACC’s Executive Vice President Ben Ferrell on the RedZone Podcast.

Courtesy of JB Goodwin