Williamson healthiest county in Texas

Austin Business Journal

Williamson County residents were listed as the state's healthiest, according to a report today from the University of Wisconsin's Population Health Institute and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

The report considered lifestyle indicators including general health and premature death rates, smoking, obesity, binge drinking, unemployment, child poverty and air pollution.

Travis and Hays counties also ranked in the top ten, taking seventh and ninth places, respectively. Caldwell county was ranked 22nd and Bastrop fell in at No. 9.
