

Judy Alloway Addresses Leading Real Estate Companies of the World™ Regional Meeting

-Session focused on Coping and Succeeding in a Changing Relocation Market-

Judy Alloway, Director of Relocation, of JBGGoodwin REALTORS® was a speaker at the Leading Real Estate Companies of the World™ regional meeting in Dallas Oct. 2-3. The meeting attracted brokers, managers and relocation professionals from across the region and country, who gathered for timely educational workshops, brainstorming sessions and networking opportunities.

Judy's session addressed a topic of great interest in the real estate community. As a respected expert in this area, Judy shared insights to help educate fellow Leading Real Estate Companies of the World™ members.

Judy's session was part of the larger meeting program, which gave leading real estate and relocation professionals a chance to speak about real estate trends and to discuss ways to best meet the needs of home buyers and sellers – from implementing technology tools such as the network's global home listings website, RELOHomeSearch.com, to the importance of providing quality managed care through a relocation department.
