

ALAMO CITY'S PEARL GETS A POLISH

SAN ANTONIO (San Antonio Express-News) – The Pearl Brewery's residential stock is about to go up. Developers are entering the arena thanks to the completion of the Park amphitheater and the addition of more retail space.

Two upcoming residential developments, both slated to open at the Pearl in late 2012, are expected to bring the apartment tally to about 300 units.

Infrastructure work has already begun on the 211-unit Can Plant apartments. Just north of the building, a 150,000-sf project will include about 73 residential units along with office and retail space for shopping and restaurants.

The outdoor amphitheater, dubbed the Park, was recently completed on a hill along the San Antonio River.
