Breaux Ranch is located in the western portion of Grimes County. This area is well known for its many lakes and rolling topography, the countryside in western Grimes County is picturesque. The ranch offers a beautiful custom-built home tucked in a mott of post oak trees surrounded by multiple lakes and ponds, several of which are believed to be artesian. Beautifully manicured rolling pastures with hilltops and long views were thoughtfully developed throughout the ranch. Sand Creek runs through the middle of the ranch, this wet weather creek is lined with beautiful post oaks and water oaks, under their canopies are miles of trails to explore.

Built in 2005
