Goliad Townsite, Goliad, Texas

REDUCED FOR 2020!!!! This historic jewel is ready for new owners! With tons of history and stories to tell, it will make an impressive business/residence or both. History shows it was originally a one-room residence built by Ludwig Volbrecht around 1848 and was later re-modeled by Dr. Getzwiller who used the front rooms as an office and the rock basement as a pharmacy. The walls are made of stone and originate from the Presidio La Bahia and are 20 inches thick. Property is located in the National Register of Historical places and could be eligible for historic tax credits. The first floor is currently housed by the Goliad Chamber of Commerce and second floor was previously leased as office space, however, the second floor could be used as residential with an outside patio and courtyard for entertaining. Lots of options! Don't miss out on the chance to own a piece of Texas history!
