Belton Original, Belton, Texas

Here's your opportunity to own a beautifully maintained historic home in the heart of Belton! The R.F. & Lena Burford Home was built w/true cut lumber in 1909 by the Burford & Venables families, owners of the Belton New Lumber Co. According to the Nat'l Register of Historic Places, this home is "a textbook example of a Prairie School foursquare house" & has been immaculately preserved for 100+ years. The spacious L-shaped porch welcomes you as you enter the glass front door with transom windows. The large entry, complete w/courting bench, flows into the roomy living room & formal dining. Around 1950, the kitchen & butler's pantry were switched to create an extra room, perhaps for a breakfast nook. The bedrooms upstairs are spacious & boast numerous windows to fill the rooms with light. The bathrooms have been updated to add a stylish flare to the historic charm. Spray foam insulation helps keep energy costs low! Don't miss the bonus rooms on the 3rd floor! Call today for your showing.

Built in 1909
