Building Blk, Bastrop, TX

This is in the heart of downtown Bastrop. This is in the historical district. The building still has the bank vaults and doors in place and several rooms in the rear of the large open retail space. This was a former wine retail user whos has moved to 924 Main street. The building has concrete floors and brick and plaster walls. The upstairs is available also and is 1,100 sq. ft. finished out very nice with great hardwood floors and chandeliers in each room, very nice bath room that has plumbing for a shower. It was built out to be a up stairs coffee shop. This area has great restaurants and retail uses in the three four block area with great restaurant and cookie shop across Alley B at rear of building. This is ideal building for artistic or creative retail store, hair salon, office, gift shop, bakery, liquor store or many other uses.

Built in 1976
